Dear Mathematics Educator,

The University of Houston invites you and your students to participate in a High School Mathematics Contest ONLINE on Saturday, January 30, 2021. The contest will be hosted by the Department of Mathematics, the College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics, and the University of Houston Mathematics Enthusiasts.

The contest is open to all Middle School and High School students, and individual exams will be given in each of the following subject areas:

Algebra I	Geometry	Algebra II
Pre-Calculus	Statistics	Calculus
Physics	Calculator Usage	Number Sense

In addition, students can compete in The SmackDown. Students are eligible to take AT MOST ONE of Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II and Pre-Calculus provided they are currently enrolled in the associated course. Every student is welcome to take the Statistics, Calculus, Physics, Number Sense and Calculator exams. Students may sign up for a maximum of two of the nine subject exams above, and all students are welcome to compete in The SmackDown.

There is NO cost for students or schools. Prizes will be awarded to the best students, and we promise a good time for all participants. Additional information and online registration can be found on our website

<http://mathcontest.uh.edu>

Please share the information in this letter with others that you believe will be interested, and urge them to contact us so that they may be included in our later announcements.

We hope you can join us ONLINE on January 30.
